STATE COLLEGE BOROUGH COUNCIL MEMBER ENDORSES JOANNE TOSTI-VASEY

BELLEFONTE, PA MARCH 13, 2008: Barbara Hafer – former Pennsylvania State Treasurer (1997-2005) and Auditor General (1989-1997) – has endorsed Joanne Tosti-Vasey for the 171st House District seat in the Pennsylvania General Assembly.

Ms. Hafer said, "I have known, observed, and worked with Joanne Tosti-Vasey for over fifteen years. She is an excellent and experienced organizer, advocate, and speaker." She continued her endorsement, stating that, "[Joanne's] drive for equality and compassion for our families and for women, children, people with disabilities, and people of color has resulted in positive change for people throughout Pennsylvania. She will make an excellent representative for the people of the 171st House District in Centre and Mifflin counties. I therefore wholeheartedly endorse her campaign to represent the 171st House District in the Pennsylvania General Assembly.”

Tosti-Vasey invites voters to join her campaign at <http://www.tosti-vasey.com>.
